Police make arrest in fatal hit-and-run

Oakland police have arrested Charles Jackson, 40, in the hit-and-run death Monday night of Margaret Hamilton, 24. Police Traffic Officer Mike Oliveira said Hamilton was on her way home from a convenience store when she was struck on 73rd Avenue near Fresno Street by an automobile. An anonymous caller told Alameda police Tuesday morning that a man had parked a car with damage, and fresh blood on its windshield, on Mound Street. Oliveira said a registration check on the 1981 Buick Skylark led to Jackson who lives in Oakland. He was arrested for investigation of felony manslaughter and hit-and-run driving.
